My sister Diane and I met Karen on a trip to Scotland and Ireland in October 2023. She was so kind and friendly. The 3 of us hit it off from day 1 and traveled together for the majority of the trip. She was such a trooper and enjoyed every moment. She and I kept in touch for a while after that trip but our last correspondence was in late November 2023. I have been trying to contact her recently to join us on another trip to no avail. I ran across her obituary by googling her name. My sincerest condolences to you all, Karen's family and friends. I'm thankful our paths happened to cross if only briefly, on this journey we call life. Joanne See

So sorry to learn of Karen's passing. She was one of the kindest and best neighbors anyone could ask for. Our young boys adored her and Cedric and frequently wandered over for a visit to her house. She was Always smiling and such a pleasure to be around. Rest in peace Karen, You will continue to missed.
