

Adelino Moiron dos Santos

July 4, 1930 - September 3, 2025

Adelino Moiron dos Santos, 95, passed away in his home in Sleepy Hollow on Wednesday, September 3rd, 2025.

Adelino was born on July 4, 1930, in the small town of Mata Mourisca, Portugal to Adelina Moiron and Joaquim dos Santos. The family eventually moved to Melo, Portugal, where he would meet and eventually marry his wife of 69 years, Elvira Amaral Ribeiro.

His son José was born in 1957, and shortly after, Adelino departed Portugal for a journey that would eventually see him and his family span three continents. He spent the first 7 years in Angola, where he worked as a painter and a teamster. In 1966, he settled in Sleepy Hollow, where he raised his family and spent 25 years as a painter.

After his retirement in 1992, he would spend most of his time with family and friends. He was a lifelong fan of Benfica football club, listening to their matches each week on short-wave radio. He was also a keen self-taught musician, especially skilled in the accordion.

Adelino was a very active member of the Portuguese American Cultural Center in Tarrytown, where he plied his skills on the accordion for the Rancho Folclórico: Recordar é Viver, a Portuguese folk dancing group whose name means "to Recollect is to live." He brought joy to generations of children playing the role of Santa Claus at the club's Christmas events, distributing hundreds of presents throughout the years.

Adelino is survived by his wife Elvira, son José and his wife Linda, grandchildren Jason and Philip and their wives Cecilia and Annette, and great-grandchildren Sage, Ruby and Luca.
