

Angel L. Vega

January 26, 1972 - July 29, 2022

Angel Vega, also known as “ChiChi” passed away July 29, 2022, at the young age of 50, in his hometown of Harlem, NY. Chichi was born at Columbia Presbyterian Hospital, in Washington Heights, on January 26, 1972, to Maria and Carlos Vega.

Chichi, was a loving, caring and devoted life partner to Jillian Ramos who he shared his life with for 25 years. They shared three sons together Nicholas, Matthew, Jacob and the family dog Chase. He loved spending his time at home with his family, watching the Yankee game, a movie and playing video games. He was a happy man who had a great sense of humor and loved making people laugh. He was always there to lend a helping hand to anyone that reached out to him. Chichi was a family man who loved all his children and grandchildren whether they were near or far.

Chichi, like most people spent many hours at work. He worked for a company called Regenron in Tarrytown, NY where he worked as a Senior Animal Care Tech for 7 years. Chichi loved his job because it brought him joy and the people, he worked with were not just coworkers but family.

Chichi is survived by his brother, Charlie his children Tiana, Steven, Angel Jr., Genesis, Naomi and his eleven grandchildren.

Chichi, you are an Angel, and you will be dearly missed and forever remembered in our hearts and memories. Sleep in peace and watch over us. Love you forever in a day.
