“ So many memories, so many stories. Shopping trips to malls miles away that we had no idea how to get to but somehow did after calling OnStar a couple of times while stifling laughs.
A trip to Atlantic City in a blizzard where we were the only car on the road.
Mom’s constant companion on Wednesdays for hair appointments that she so looked forward to.
Nearly picking out the dog at the animal shelter that had been returned three times for biting its new owner.
Trips to Madison Square Garden to see our beloved Knicks from the rafters.
Thanks for the good times and everything in between. You were so loved and will be so missed.

“ When in my teens Angelo took me over to meet his then girlfriend Cookie at her apartment on North Broadway and it instantly changed my life having met a sweet soul such as her... Now as she departs this physical world once again she has changed my life as there is now a hole in my heart that can never be filled again..
Angelo and Cookie are by far my two favorites in life.. They cant be replaced ...Love you both beyond words...
