

Anne D. (DeCarlo) Petry

March 30, 1927 - May 16, 2016

Anne DeCarlo Petry passed away peacefully on May 16, 2016. Anne was born on March 30, 1927 in North Tarrytown to Anna (Shroba) and Charles DeCarlo. Anne attended Pocantico Hills Central School and later graduated from Washington Irving High School in 1945. She married Grover Petry in 1956 and resided in Ossining for many years until moving back to Sleepy Hollow. Anne worked for over 20 years as a secretary for the Village of Ossining. She is survived by her children: John (Maureen) Petry of Sleepy Hollow, Mary Petry (George) Gerlanc of Briarcliff Manor and Beth (Peter) Basha of Sleepy Hollow, her grandchildren Alex, Amanda, John & Emma, her great-grandson Owen, her sister Joan Sypher and many beloved nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. She was predeceased by her husband, sister and brother-in-law, Lucille and Arthur Ceconi. Anne had a strong sense of faith, a love of family including all her “adopted” children all over the country and was known for her cooking, especially her homemade soups and Slovak specialties.

“ With profound sadness as well as great affection for a life well lived and an example well set, Merridy and I offer our deepest condolences to the Petry family on your Mom's passing. We have long and deep memories of your Mom (and Dad) that are part of our DNA now. The Menna's and DeCarlo's go way back in the history of Tarrytown and North Tarrytown. May Anne rest in peace in the Lord's arms.
