

Anthony Napoli

September 30, 1950 - August 4, 2022

Anthony (Tony) Francis Napoli sadly passed away on August 4, 2022. Tony was born on September 30, 1950 and is predeceased by his parents Anthony F. Napoli (December 1989) and Laura Patricia (Fortunato) Napoli (March 2008) and his sister Patricia Andrea (Napoli) Guenkel (June 2001). Anthony is survived by his niece, Patricia (Guenkel) Roessel and her son: Matthew, and niece Lisa (Guenkel) Wheeler and her husband: Chris, and daughters: Lauren, Stephanie, Brooke and Jessica. Anthony was a 70-year resident of Tarrytown. He worked at the GM assembly plant which suited him well because he was an avid classic Chevy car fan. He also loved his community and was most likely known by residents who would see him on his many walks around town. Anthony's family will receive friends on Thursday, August 11th at 10:30 am at the Dwyer and Michael's Funeral Home in Tarrytown and will be laid to rest with his family at Sleepy Hollow Cemetery.

“ Anthony, you were a native son. Peace be with you now as you join your parents and sister. I will miss not calling out your name when we passed on the street.

“ Tony was always super friendly to me and my dog whenever we bumped into him walking near the aqueduct. I will miss seeing him and talking to him.

“ I was devastated by Tony's passing. I have known Tony for over 20 years as a Tarrytown resident living a few blocks away. We talked about many things over the years and he will be missed. Tony was a gentle soul liked by all who had the joy of meeting him.
