Braulio “Hildo” Arvelo Crespo was called Home to God on July 17, 2020 at the age of 81. Braulio was born to Higinio Arvelo Martinez and Magdalena Crespo de Arvelo in San Sebastian, PR. He came to NYC from his beloved Puerto Rico at the age of 19. He started working odd jobs until becoming a NYC Police Officer. He later became a NYC Corrections Officer and achieved the rank of Captain. “Captain Crespo” retired from civil service after a distinguished 26-year career. Braulio was a cherished husband to Isabel (Dary) Arvelo Crespo for over 46 years. Braulio and Isabel met in the streets of NYC. Isabel needed instructions to her destination and asked him if he spoke Spanish. Braulio responded “Café”. Isabel fell in love with his sense of humor, full head of hair and handsome looks. From that day forward, they were inseparable. They went on to start a family and build a home in Brooklyn where they remained until this very day. Braulio was truly a man of strength and discipline. He will be remembered most for his witty sense of humor and his love of nature. Braulio is survived by his wife: Isabel, sons: David, Marcos, and Miguel, and his two daughters: Michelle, and Magdalena Arvelo; Step-children Carmen, Esmeralda, Victor, Griselda, Aida, and Winston; Grandchildren Illyana, Miranda, Adriana, Matthew, Maya, Alexander & 1 Great Grandchild, Alexandria. He will forever be missed by everyone who knew him.

Sleep in peace. We love you Papi. Braulio will be in repose at Evergreen Funeral Home 131 Nassau Avenue Brooklyn NY 11222 on Friday, July 24th from 2-5pm. A private viewing will follow for his immediate family.
