“ I've known Carol for about 39 years. We shared alot together. Her family meant a lot to her, and so did God. She was a tough woman, and didn't want anyone feeling sorry for her. In spite of her condition, she always greeted us with a great big smile when we came to see her. Natalie and Nora were the focus of most conversations. Also, her daughter Kathleen, and her sister Rosanne.

She will be missed a lot, but we know she's in good hands now!
