“ Aunt Catherine

So sorry for your loss John and Alice.

Visiting Irvington always included a trip down to see Aunt Catherine - a happy tradition that continued with my wife and kids.

We all have fond memories of Aunt Catherine and her kindness.

She really had the Morrison knack for being present and the ability to remember birthdays.

She will be missed

“ Mrs. Morrison was a special lady. My wife (Denni) and I loved her sense of humor, spunky personality and down to earth outlook on life. We met her through her son John, and the memories created will be cherished forever. She was at home with her favorite beverage, a beer, and it was fun sharing moments with her, whether while visiting her at her home in Irvington or when she visited Ohio. She was full of spunk and enjoyed giving John, the “what for”, for which he usually deserved. We will miss you “Mom”.
