Christian Malcolm Locke September 27, 1997 – January 11, 2025

Christian Malcolm Locke, born on September 27th , 1997, at St. John's Hospital in Yonkers, NY, passed away peacefully on January 11th, 2025, in White Plains, NY. With a heart as big as his laughter and a presence that could brighten the darkest days, Christian brought joy, warmth, and light to all who had the privilege of knowing him.

A proud graduate of Harrison High School, Christian was the life of every room he entered. He had a gift for connection, making everyone feel seen, heard, and cherished. Whether he was sharing hilarious stories or offering quiet moments of heartfelt understanding, Christian's energy was magnetic. His boundless curiosity and enthusiasm for life were unmatched, and his passions were as infectious as his signature laugh.

Christian's love for socializing was the cornerstone of his life. He had an unwavering loyalty to those he cared for, always ensuring they felt valued and supported. From his legendary antics to his gentle presence during life's difficult moments, Christian had a unique way of making the people around him feel seen and special.

His adventurous spirit and insatiable curiosity made him endlessly captivating. Christian could find wonder in the simplest moments, turning the ordinary into extraordinary with his perspective. Whether he was diving headfirst into a new topic, recounting a wild adventure, or sharing a random fact he'd uncovered, he had a way of bringing excitement and joy to every conversation.

Christian's love extended beyond people to animals, who seemed to sense his kind and gentle soul. He shared a special bond with his pets and had a compassionate nature that shone in the way he cared for all creatures. Animals gravitated to him, just as people did, drawn to his warmth and understanding.

Christian was truly one of a kind—a kind-hearted jokester, a curious adventurer, and a fiercely loyal son, brother, and friend. He lived life with an open heart, a curious mind, and a fearless spirit, leaving the world a brighter place in his wake. Though he will be deeply missed, his legacy of love, laughter, and compassion will live on in the hearts of all who knew him.

Christian, you were our light. Rest easy, knowing your stories and love will echo forever in our lives.

Christian is survived by his loving mother, Sharon; his father, Carl; his stepmother, Jennifer; his siblings, Christine, Christopher, and Sheldon; his grandfather Noel; his grandmothers, Joyce and Megnis; his aunts, Paula and Joy; his uncles, Rollin, Winston and Rhoan; his cousins, Tiffany, Kiana, Janey, Ayana, Lakesha, Ashley, Recollett, Rae, Davia, Jevone, Jelesa, Jerome, Katherine, Bryce and Sage; and a wide circle of family and friends who adored him. His memory will be treasured in the laughter he inspired, the stories he told, and the love he shared so generously.

Our sincere condolences to the whole family. If I could only imagine how hard it is. Larah is taking it so hard, her heart is broken. I like to share that I always saw a good hearted person within him and he made my daughter laugh, also to say that he was a well mannered person and respectful to me regardless. He will be missed tremendously!

Family we have you all in our prayers. Christian, my dearest nephew was so loving, kind, gentle , fun etc. I am grateful for his last dance with me. How many youngsters would want to be around grown folks much less to have a heart felt and sincere dance with me. My heart is broken in pieces. He is gone this soon. I will continue to cherish this dance and moment I had with my baby boy.
