

Edith I Pagano

November 26, 1930 - May 5, 2022

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of our beautiful mother Edith Pagano, age 91 of Brookfield, Connecticut. She left this earthly life on May 5, 2022 surrounded by her family.

Edith was born and raised in the Bronx to immigrant parents Lena and Charles Profetti in 1930. She went on to become a talented artist hand painting china in a professional ceramic studio along with her sister Catherine. At age 19, she met the love of her life, Frank Pagano (deceased) and they were married in 1951. Together they raised four daughters and two grand daughters.

Most important in Edith's life was her family. She was happiest with a house full of people sharing a great meal. She enjoyed painting, gardening, cooking and stitchery. She was an animal lover and an avid reader. Later in life she loved going out for an Italian meal with family and friends. In her golden years she moved from Elmsford, NY to Brookfield, CT to live with her granddaughter Ashley and her husband Kyle.

She was overjoyed when she became a grandmother and great grandmother and was an active part of their lives up until her passing. She is survived by her children Denise Wheatley (Robert), Donna Tompkins (Barry), Doreen Halsall (Thomas). She was preceded in death by her daughter Deborah Bell

(Thomas). She is survived by her six grandchildren, Cristin Moran, Dana Ferris, Brenton Wheatley, Ashley Schutte-Bell, Alexandra Wheatley, Loren Halsall and six great grandchildren.

None of us can do great things. But we can do small things with great love-

Mother Teresa

“ I got a message today from Doreen sharing such sad news with me about your Mom and Grandma and Great Grandma Edie. I grew up across the street from the Pagano's and I can't possibly tell you all of my childhood as it relates to them but I can tell you one special thing about Edie. When I was 5 and all the families on Overhill road hung out in the circle during the summer Edie made me I would say one of my most treasured memories and presents ever. A Superman cape. Red and long, she gave it to me and I quickly put it around me neck and flew into a fantasy of being Superman so much so that I tried to fly through the glass storm door of my house. I was cut up from head to toe, my dad asking himself how dumb I can possibly be, but I was Superman with that cape. Completely. I loved Edie for that and I loved her for how pleased she was when I had some success as an actor and she recognized it and shared her joy with me. What loving support from that doorway up on a hill. She was beautiful, kind, creative and loved. I'm so sorry for all of you for your loss. She will be so very, very missed. Sending much love. Scotty Cohen.

“ So very sorry for your loss. Anytime I was ever around her she was full of life and exuded happiness. She shared openly stories from her life. As a youngster I appreciated and enjoyed that :) It's wonderful to see how you all took such great care of her to the end. God Speed Eddie and Rest in Peace. OOx
