We have lost our beloved mother, Emily Nicodemus, at 81 years of age on January 24, 2022. Emily had a long battle with Alzheimers and recently complications of Covid Pneumonia.

She was born September 30th, 1940 in Bronx, NY to Sarah and Robert Shaw. She was the eldest of 7 children. Emily married Fredrick Nicodemus on January 7th, 1961. They lived in Irvington for the remainder of their lives. Emily is survived by her three children: Deborah Pires and son-in-law Steve Pires of Valhalla, Frederick Nicodemus of Armonk, NY and Ruth Nicodemus of Wellington, FL. She is also survived by four grandchildren, and three great grandchildren. Emily was predeceased by her loving husband in 2018.

Emily was most happy when she was with her family. She loved spending summer weekends at their lake house enjoying family and friends. Emily was a partner to her husband in business and together they built a company that thrives today after more than fifty years in business. She and her husband have had a passion for renovating homes since the 1980's. She had an amazing green thumb, and won town "beautification" awards for multiple years. Emily will be most remembered for her sharp wit and the wellspring of kindness she brought forth to all those around her.
