Gary J. Fratangelo

September 22, 1946 – January 6, 2026

Gary is survived by his wife Barbara, his daughter Nicole, his son Scott and his wife Heather and his daughter Lauren and her husband Brian

Gary is also survived by his granddaughters, who lovingly called him “Grampy”. Jayleen, Julianna, Emilia, Chiara and Andrea. He was also lucky enough to enjoy his Great grandsons Forrest and River

Gary was a proud Vietnam Army Veteran, always ensuring that his flags were proudly displayed.

Gary was a true warrior. He put his whole heart into everything he did, whether it was his career at ADP/Broadridge, his vast knowledge of cars, his passion for his family and especially fighting the fight with dementia. He will be missed by many.

We request donations in his honor to the Alzheimer’s Association <https://www.alz.org/> or the Wounded Warrior Project <https://www.woundedwarriorproject.org/>

A celebration of life event will be scheduled in the near future.

“ I am very sorry to hear the sad news. My condolences to the family. Gary was a funny guy. A good man! ”

Mort Mekler - February 25 at 04:27 PM

“ For whatever reason Gary came to mind today so I thought I would look him up on Facebook. My condolences to all of his family on your loss. We worked together at A.G.Becker and stayed in touch when he was ar ADP. I have great memories of our interest in Led Zeppelin, of course cars, and playing football together in a Wall Street Group of teams. RiP Gary. ”
