“ I would like to extend my heartfelt condolences to the family on the loss of your loved one. May God almighty, father of tender mercies and all comfort continue to strengthen you all (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). How eager we all are to see the fulfillment of Gods promise to completely remove death, tears, mourning, outcry and pain (Revelation 21:4). The Bible also provides assurance of the resurrection hope for our dead loved ones (John 5:25). May these promises from God bring you comfort. You can learn more about Gods purposes at www.jw.org

“ George and my dad were cousins. I have fond memories of your dad and my maternal Uncle Gerald Foley's stories about him. Your mom was so kind to me allowing me to work in her K class at John Paulding as a member of the Future Teachers Clib my senior year at SHHS '68 before I attended Ladycliff.Colleg. My condolences to you.
