Geubert Oliveira

November 2, 1953 – November 26, 2024

New York, NY

Geubert Oliveira, a man whose life was defined by dedication, ambition, and an unwavering passion for his work, passed away on November 26, 2024, in New York at the age of 71. He was surrounded by his devoted wife, who stood by his side until the very end, and leaves behind three beloved children.

Born on November 2, 1953, in Minas Gerais, Brazil, Geubert's journey took him across the globe, where he built a legacy through hard work, perseverance, and a commitment to excellence. In the 1980s, he was instrumental in the development of a railway system in the Middle East, an experience that marked the beginning of his illustrious career. In the 1990s, he pursued his entrepreneurial spirit, owning and managing the Bello Motors dealership in the Queens, NY. But it was in real estate where Geubert truly found his calling. For the last 25 years of his life, he poured his heart and soul into the real estate industry, building a thriving career that became not just his work, but his true passion.

Geubert's professional achievements were only one part of his remarkable life. He was also known for his generosity, kindness, and willingness to always lend a helping hand. Whether through his guidance, advice, or direct support, he impacted the lives of countless people, teaching valuable lessons that extended far beyond business. Those who knew him best will remember his genuine nature, his unwavering integrity, and his ability to make everyone feel seen and valued.

Though Geubert found immense satisfaction in his career, his family was always his center. He was a loving husband, father, and friend, whose relationships were marked by deep loyalty and affection. He will be profoundly missed by all who knew him.
