“ As the Dove (The Holy Spirit) has been freed to carry the Olive branch, Mr. Fiore has been freed from all his suffering. Watch for butterflies before September ends and next year, especially around the anniversary of your Father's death. Butterflies represent the Resurrection and their presence will assure you your father's soul has been resurrected into heaven and he is finally at peace with our Heavenly Father.

“ It is with deep sympathy that I offer my condolences to the Fiore Family, especially Angela. I only met Mr. Fiore once and it was brief. I really didn't know him well, but I can tell you from knowing his daughter, Angela and his son, Paul, Mr. Fiore had to be extraordinary, compassionate, loving and a very caring man as he brought up his children to be. People like Mr. Fiore and his children are rarities today. As Mr. Fiore's obituary reads, "He was known for helping out his fellow man in need." I don't know Paul as well as I know Angela but Angela, at this difficult & sad time in her life, having just lost her Father, drove me to Columbia Presbyterian Hospital in NYC on Tuesday in the pouring rain and flooding on the highway for a medical treatment I needed. In loving Memory of Mr. Fiore I say "thank you" for your kind heart that you passed on your loving and compassionate characteristics to your daughter and probably to your sons too.

Dear Angela, Paul (Anita) and Anthony,

Although I only met your Father once, I know he was a beautiful person. My prayers are with all of you during this most difficult time. God said he would not take away our difficulties but He would give us His strength and love to get through it. Keep close to God, I promise He will give you His strength and courage to get through this painful and sad time. When you feel sad and miss him, grieve but most importantly ask yourself "how would my Father, want me to carry on in his memory."

I leave you with this poem:

"Now that I am gone, remember me with smiles and laughter.

And if you need to cry,

cry with your brothers or sister or sister-in-law

who walks in grief beside you.

And when you need me,

put your arms around anyone

and give them what you need to give to me.

There are so many who need so much.

*I want to leave you with something -- something much better than words or sounds.
Look for me in the people I've known
or helped in some special way.
let me live in your heart
as well as in your mind.
You can love me most
by letting your love reach out to our loved ones and friends,
by embracing them and living in their love.
Love does not die, people do.
So, when all that's left of me is love,
give me away as best you can."*
