“ Uncle Herb was a quiet kind man with a laugh that made you feel he understood your joke or story. My memory is of the names of endearment he had for his pride and joy, my cousin Camille. The times spent at Saratoga lake with aunt Anne and family are priceless. Uncle Herb blossomed when his two jewels were born. How he loved Louis peter and James. How fortunate for them to now carry that love and pride in their hearts forever. May he rest with aunt Anne in eternal peace.
