

Hugo DiCenzo

October 14, 1928 - November 6, 2023

Hugo DiCenzo, 95, of Irvington, NY passed away peacefully on November 6th, 2023. Hugo was born on October 14th, 1928, to John DiCenzo and Emilia DelMonaco DiCenzo in Pettorano sul Gizio, Italy. Hugo and his family came to America in 1939 and settled in North Tarrytown (Sleepy Hollow) and later moved to Tarrytown, NY. Hugo was drafted into the United States Army during the time of the Korean War and was deployed overseas for two years. Once discharged from the Army, Hugo worked for Sheet Metal Workers International Association Local No. 38 and was a member for over 50 years.

Hugo enjoyed traveling, spent many winters in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, enjoyed playing golf with family members and friends. He was a comedian, always the life of a party, and was well known in the villages. Hugo enjoyed spending time with friends at the local coffee shops, walks down by the Irvington and Tarrytown waterfronts and an avid sports fan. Hugo was very handy and was always willing to help family with household projects.

Hugo is survived by his sister Eda DiCenzo Bueti and sister-in-law Maria DiCenzo, his nephews Joseph Centofanti and wife Miriam, John DiCenzo and wife Therese, Dominick Bueti and Anthony Bueti Jr and wife Danielle as well as his nieces Diana DiCenzo Maher, Lisa Fitzgerald and husband Robert, and Joanne Bueti and many great nephews and nieces.

Along with his parents, Hugo is predeceased by his sister Elvira Centofanti and her husband Joseph, his brother Frank DiCenzo and his nephews Albert and David Centofanti.

The family would like to thank the staff in Reflections at the Bristol Assisted Living Facility in Armonk, NY for their excellent care and kindness to Hugo. Their diligent care is highly appreciated. Reposing Dwyer & Michael's Funeral Home, 90 N Broadway, Tarrytown, New York, on Thursday, November, 9, 2023, from 4-8pm. A funeral mass will be on Friday, November, 10, 2023, at St. John Paul Immaculate Conception in Sleepy Hollow, at 10am. Cremation private.
