“ My father the greatest man that I'll ever know, nothing will ever compare to the love the laughter the memories that we shared, I remember going to Tarrytown on Friday nights for good fish fries and blue crabs, one thing about my dad he worked hard and surely when it was time to have a good time he made sure of that for everyone. My father is the best will always be the best and if it wasn't for him none of us would be the best that we are. "Make it work".
