“ I had the privilege of knowing Jeremy and his parents for the past four years. Jeremy had a smile that was infectious and could light up the darkest of rooms. He was kind, funny and always willing to help others. Jeremy's greatest difficulty was not realizing just truly how wonderful he was. His bravery and perseverance as he struggled with seizures was truly a profile in courage. My heart aches for his mother and family as I know how deeply she loves him and always will. I am blessed to have crossed paths with Jeremy and my hope is that his story of courage will inspire others. Rest in peace sweet Jeremy. You will forever be missed.
