

Joan Marie Brady

February 20, 1956 - November 12, 2015

Joan Marie Brady, 59, of Tarrytown, New York, passed away on November 12, 2015. She was born on February 20, 1956 in the Bronx. She was predeceased by her parents. Joan is survived by her sister, Patricia DeFauw, and her brother, Jerome Brady. She was a graduate of Bernard M. Baruch College in New York City. Joan was employed by Colgate-Palmolive Company for thirty years in a number of roles in the areas of global marketing training, global business development and consumer insight branding. An avid traveler for both business and pleasure, her travels took her all over the world. Joan had many other interests, not the least of which was her love of animals which led her to volunteer at the Bronx Zoo. She loved theatre, movies, books and a good meal with family and friends. But Joan's greatest joy was in the many friendships she created through the years. Her infectious smile and the warmth of her personality made all who knew her feel special. Oh, how that smile will be missed. “ I was at my dentist office today and Joan popped into my memory. My wife Dianne (Rip 2006) and I met Joan on safari in Botswana and the ladies became friends. We were able to visit with Joan in NYC for lunch a couple of times when my company was exhibiting at the Javits Center. Amazing how a discussion of Colgate Total toothpaste today brought back wonderful memories of, as we called her “Joan Wilder of Romancing the Stone” in reference to the many travel adventures Joan went on in her far too short life.

“ Joan and I met in elementary school and had a friendship that lasted over twenty years. Although we lost touch with each other later in life, I have many special memories of the earlier times we shared together.

She was a wonderful friend, and I am saddened that we didn't have an opportunity to see each other again.

My heartfelt condolences to her sister, Patricia, and brother, Jerome.
