“ Dear Maureen, Ian and Gayton, We were saddened to hear of John's passing. We have many warm memories of him in days gone by. Still remember attending a play where John worked with Maureen Stapleton, and they were both fabulous. Beyond his theatrical accomplishments, almost as importantly, we remember him as a truly gentle man. He will be missed. Please be assured of our prayers.

“ Dear Maureen, Audrey just told me of Johns passing and I wanted to extend my deepest condolences ..I always looked forward to our warm conversations at Audrey's ,you and John had a wonderful love affair so apparent to see.

Also thank you for being such caring neighbors to my family. I recall with fondness John describing to me some mischief the boys got into . With his wonderful laugh he simply said boys will be boys , we were all there.

Please take care of yourself and be comforted by the love that you shared

Warmly, Betsey Stone
