“ It was my pleasure to know Karen. My condolences to family. Ways I will remember her was her friendliness and inspiration. I visited and remember the shoes in a cabinet that was one of many collections. After meeting her, I collected a few glass shoes also. I will not forget Karen.

“ A sudden quiet fills the air,
Where laughter used to dance and flare.
For Karen, with her spirit bright,
Has moved beyond our mortal sight.

She was the sunshine after rain,
A cure for sorrow, doubt, or pain.
Eccentric, with a style her own,
The most vibrant soul we've ever known.

At every party, she would gleam,
The living embodiment of a dream.
A beauty not of form or face,
But of a spirit full of grace.

That ray of sunshine, warm and true,
In everything she'd say or do.
The world feels dimmer now you're gone,
And yet, your light will carry on.

Deeply missed, the words are small,
To capture how we feel it all.
But in our hearts, you'll always be,
The life of every memory.

We love nad will miss you Aunt Karen!
Love, Matt, Brandy, Ashley and Everett
