“ I would like to extend my heartfelt condolences to the family on the loss of your loved one. May God almighty father of tender mercies and all comfort continue to strengthen you all (2 Corinthians 1: 3, 4). We all indeed look forward to the fulfillment of God's promise to completely remove death, tears, mourning, outcry and pain (Revelation 21:4). The Bible also provides assurance that in God's Kingdom, our dead loved ones will be brought back to life ( John 5:25). May these promises from God bring you comfort. “ I will miss you greatly. I miss those long conversations on the phone a few years back. It is disappointing that all of the efforts to visit with you, and you with us failed, for I so wanted you to meet my family. Prayers go out to you and for those family and friends you left behind, that loved you as much as we did. I know that you are finally out of pain as the Lord welcomes you with open arms.
