

Luciano Volpacchio

January 1, 1938 - October 20, 2023

Like so many Italian immigrants, dad (Luciano), came to this country in 1954 at the age of 15. He worked hard as a painter and decorator so he could return to Italy to marry our mother from the same little town, Mirabello Sannitico. They were glued together in marriage for over 66 years and never gave up on love. Together they worked hard and were very proud of what they accomplished. They raised a family of 3 children, Anna Maria and the twins, Romeo and Giuliana. 8 Grandchildren and 5 Great Grandkids. Survived by his loving wife Maria Di Nunzio and his older sister, Elvira Fantacone.

Dad was a real family man. "La famiglia" was everything to him. He petitioned for our mother's family to immigrate to America, giving them a roof and food, while they looked for work. The respect and love our Dad received from everyone, family and friends, is immeasurable. A storyteller, a book written about his life that makes every immigrant's life seem like an adventure. He taught us to live life completely and joyfully. He went to visit Anna Maria, the oldest of the 3, every year in Rome during her 38 years abroad, and often to visit Giuliana in California, and Romeo in Basking Ridge NJ, so that they could spend time with their grandkids, as well as vacation with all of us. A giver, a mentor, a philosopher...the man who will live within us forever.

Carpe diem Dad!

We love you so much.

See you around when the time comes. ♡♡♡
