

Margarita Gonzalez

March 30, 1924 - June 12, 2025

In Loving Memory of Margarita Gonzalez

Margarita Gonzalez passed away peacefully at the remarkable age of 101. She was born on March 30, 1924, in Zaza del Medio, Las Villas, Cuba.

In 1966, Margarita immigrated to the United States with her two children to join her beloved husband. The family made their home in Sleepy Hollow, New York, where she would reside for the remainder of her life. She worked diligently at Charter Sportswear in Tarrytown until her retirement.

Margarita was a devoted wife and mother who consistently put the needs of her family above her own. Though not a regular churchgoer, faith was an ever-present part of her life—God was woven into nearly every sentence she spoke.

She had a gift for cooking and an extraordinary love for gardening; it was often said she could bring even the most withered rose back to life. Quiet in demeanor but strong in spirit, Margarita lived by example. She taught those around her the importance of kindness, the power of a smile, and the value of thoughtful words.

She was preceded in death by her husband, and life partner, Severo

Gonzalez, who passed on July 7, 2000, and her daughter, Olga Gonzalez Kaufmann, who passed shortly after, on August 2, 2000.

Margarita is survived by her loving son, Angel "Guille" Gonzalez, and his wife Louise of Sleepy Hollow. She was a proud grandmother to Mark Kaufmann and his wife Courtney, Bryan Kaufmann and his wife Jillian, and Alex Gonzalez and his wife Ellen. She was also blessed with six great-grandsons: Oliver, Sawyer, Quentin, Luke, Jake, and Ben.

She is lovingly remembered by her cherished nieces, Maria Hart and her husband Alex, and Bianca Jimenez.

Margarita's legacy of love, strength, and grace lives on through the many lives she touched.
