Marilynn June McReddie passed away on January 14, 2025 at Bright View Assisted Living in Tarrytown, NY. She was 96.

A 51- year resident of Tarrytown (NY) , Marilynn or “Lynn” as many knew her , is survived by her three sons: George (Lisa) McReddie of Rye, NY and Mt. Pleasant, SC, Mac (Betsy) McReddie of Oakland, CA, and Warren (Allison) McReddie of South Salem, NY; seven grandchildren: Sarah (Aaron) Knight of Maple Grove, MN, Adam (Bonnie) McReddie of Stamford, CT, Matthew (Rita) McReddie of New York, NY, Kristin McReddie of Berkeley, CA, Kyle McReddie of Oakland, CA, Gabrielle McReddie of San Francisco, CA and Evan McReddie of Los Angeles, CA; and one great-granddaughter, Myra June Knight.

She was pre- deceased by her former husband, Percy A. McReddie.

Marilynn was born on November 3, 1928 in Santurce, San Juan, Puerto Rico to Arthur Mettke and Mathilde (“Mati”) Schneider. She attended the predecessor of Polytechnic Institute of Puerto Rico where she trained as a bilingual secretary. She subsequently lived in Flushing, North Merrick, and West Islip, NY as well as Buenos Aires, Argentina, before settling in Tarrytown in 1973.

Marilynn worked as an administrative secretary and bookkeeper at the Allan Block Agency in Tarrytown from 1974 until her retirement in 2000. She was a long-time congregant of the Reformed Church of the Tarrytowns, where she served as Secretary and member of the choir. She also performed for many years with the Old Mill Singers. Marilyn loved baseball, especially her beloved New York Yankees, Broadway musicals, the tango, and traveling to the corners of the world on cruise ships.

A memorial service will be held at the Reformed Church of the Tarrytowns on January 31, 2025 at 2:00PM.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Lynn at Allan Block Insurance for 25 years. Lynn had a smile that would light up a room and it often came with the best laugh. I will always remember our conversations about her cruise trips and her love of the NY Yankees. She was most proud of her family always sharing their successes. I will miss her so much.
