December 13, 1952 - September 26, 2022

Marjorie "Marge" Baker Coletti of West Haven, CT, age 69, passed away Monday, September 26th peacefully after a hard fought health battle. Formerly of Sleepy Hollow, NY, she was born on December 13, 1952, daughter of the late John Baker and Marjorie Roode Baker.

Marge is survived by daughter, Michelle Coletti of West Haven, CT; son, Michael Coletti of Hawthorne, NY; grandchildren Michael and Madeline Coletti; brothers John Baker of Miami, Florida and William Malahy; several cousins and nieces, including Nicole DelliVenneri of Eastchester, NY, and Christina Baker of Tarrytown, NY; several nephews, nieces, great nieces, great nephews and many friends that Marge considered family. Marge was predeceased by her late husband Joseph Coletti; a 3rd brother of Sleepy Hollow, NY and half-sister Joan DiBianco of Long Island, NY.

Better known as "Marvelous Marge", her effervescent spirit lit up a room. In life, she was a charming, popular, friendly woman who always had a smile on her face. As a former hairdresser, she took pride in her personal appearance, always the belle of the ball. She loved shopping, socializing, and spending time with her companion, Stan. Heaven will definitely be a more livelier and fashionable place once she takes residence. She will be dearly missed by all who knew her.

An intimate celebration of her life was held in Tarrytown, NY at Dwyer & Michael's Funeral Home on Monday, October 3rd, 3pm-6pm attended by close family and friends.

The family would like to thank the nurses at Yale New Haven Hospital for their compassionate care during Marge's stay. They are also grateful to all of their friends and colleagues for their support and prayers during her illness and passing.
