“ My friend Judy and I were friends of Myrna in grade school (PS28) in Colonial Heights. I happened to google Myrna yesterday and found this saddest news of her passing. Judy's memories of Myrna follow: "Myrna lived right behind me. She was the first one to play me songs (maybe even an album if they were doing that back then) of Elvis Presley songs and Roy Orbison songs. They had an iron garden statue in their front lawn." For myself, I remember Myrna as the cheeriest girlfriend, always laughing and making everyone else laugh, too. She was so bright! I very much regret not locating her and reaching out during her all-too-short lifetime. We send our sympathies. Joan and Judy (winterparkbaker@gmail.com)

“ My favorite memory will forever be of her singing “You don’t own me”, when I brought the karaoke to her birthday party, such fun times. She was a jovial person who despite life difficulties still had a great sense of humor and could smile. My deepest condolences to her family and friends, she will be missed. May God grant you peace.
