“ Nanci, we always had fun working at Ask Mr. Foster. I always smile of when I think of us playing "Spin The Globe, Whoa!", and recalling the previous night's episode of "It's Garry Shandling's Show". We had a crazy adventure on a Carnival cruise and a fun weekend in your beloved Miami afterwards. Although we saw things differently politically, we were always civil towards each other. My sympathies go out to your husband and daughters and of course, Mari and your Mom. Rest in peace. ”

“ Nanci! I can't believe that you are not here!
We met almost 40 years ago when I had just migrated to the US, and we worked together. I remember that I was afraid to go outside because of the snow and you assured me everything would be fine.
I remember your first car - the big pumpkin Charlie Brown!
I remember when your dad would come visit and you were so proud to show him off to us...you loved your dad
Nanci you were the life of the party...you loved Miami
You introduced me to Gloria Estefan & the Miami Sound Machine..
The whole roasted pig on the table for the holidays...
You had the best smile and a personality that would ignite a stadium...
Politically we stood on different sides of the aisle however we understood and respected each other...
There are so many memories Nanci
you were truly one of a kind and can never be duplicated...
My deepest condolences to your husband, your 2 daughters, your mom, your dear sister, and your extended family and a host of friends. ..
Rest in Peace my dear friend...love you lots, miss you terribly !!

“ I met Nancy over 11 years ago at The Children’s Village, and in that time she became so much more than a coworker. Nancy cared for me like a mom, always checking in, always making sure I was okay. She was there through some of the biggest milestones of my life, from renting my first apartment, to getting engaged and married, to having my first child, to buying my first home. She was there for it all.

To my daughter, she was “Titi Nan.” Gianna (or “Little Carrot,” as Nancy liked to call her) adored her. As I sit here looking around my home, I can see so many little reminders of Nancy - the perfect princess mirror, the dresses for every holiday, the baby stroller she loves running around the house with, the school backpack she loves to show off, and the dozens of books we read together every night before bed. These are all things Nancy made sure my daughter had, because that’s just who she was. She showed up for every birthday party, every FaceTime call, every moment that mattered.

At work, she was the light of our department and my partner in crime. Her warmth, humor, and kindness filled every space she entered. It’s hard to imagine our team without her. There are no words big enough to capture the void she’s leaving behind, but I will hold on tightly to the memories, laughter, and love she gave so freely. I will miss her more than I can ever express.

“ Nancy and I grew up together on Washington Street and Zobeida was a dear friend to my mother and grandmother. I left Tarrytown many years ago but have fond memories of the place and its sense of community. I pray that this community ease the pain of Nancy’s passing. My sincere condolences.

“ I have lots of memories of Nancy growing up. For starters she has a beautiful gift made for me when I was born and 41 years later, I still have it with me. Then when I got older, I loved going through her very expensive perfumes and one time wasted the whole bottle on myself. I thought she would kill me that day. Then years later, her and I were pregnant the same year and my oldest son Leon, and her beautiful Samantha are only 1 month apart. We were similar in many ways and we never lost touch. She was my number one fan on social media and always showed me kindness and love. The world will not be the same without her in it. I will always think of her fondly and remember all the great moments we shared together.

“It’s hard to put into words how much Nancy meant to me. For 11 years, she wasn’t just my co-worker — she was my “work mom”, my confidant, and my friend. She looked out for me in ways that only someone who truly cares would. She was “Tía” to my kids, always asking about them and treating them like her own.

We shared so many memories — laughter, long talks, venting sessions, and moments that made every day at work better just because she was there. The office just isn’t the same without her — it feels quieter, and there’s a piece missing.

She had this amazing way of making people feel seen and cared for, even on the busiest or hardest days. I’ll always carry those moments with me — the laughter, the advice, the love she gave so effortlessly.

Nancy, you’ll always have a special place in my heart. Thank you for being part of my life — for being my “work mom,” my friend, and my family. I miss you deeply, but I’m so grateful for the years and memories we shared.

“ My Beloved friend, I just spoke with you a couple days ago. You were the light which never dims, no matter the day's activities you carried around your light everywhere. This you did so graciously to everyone you met including me. You made onboarding at CV seems like a new family member coming home. You believed in every customer every time and you demonstrated what customer experience felt like leading by example. You are lighting those angels up in heaven with fun and laughter. I will miss the whole diaspora of CV will and the extension of other lives in around your community. Rest in Peace Beloved. Well done.

“ *I am deeply saddened to learn of Nancy's passing. She & I worked together building & managing the Human Resources for the wonderful senior living community of Kendal on Hudson in Sleepy Hollow. Nancy was a friendly & diligent employee, always looking for ways to help our staff members succeed. She was my right-hand assistant and was well respected. Together we helped & encouraged our staff members to excel in their specific roles. And she loved coordinating staff parties & celebrations. My deepest sympathy to Gabi and the whole family. “ I had the honor of meeting Nancy at CV this past January. Although we didn't know each other long, it didn't take much time to see the remarkable woman she was. She was selfless, always thinking of others before herself, and made sure everyone felt cared for — and well fed. Her quick wit, warm spirit, and heart of gold left a lasting impression on everyone around her.

Nancy's presence in the office will be deeply missed. She brought light and kindness into every room she entered.

My heartfelt condolences go out to her family and loved ones. I hope you find strength and comfort in the love that surrounds you, and in the beautiful memories she leaves behind.

“ Nancy was truly the “work mom” for our HR family here at CV. Her generosity, love, and caring nature knew no bounds. Her absence is deeply felt throughout the office.

I will miss her laugh, her witty quips, and just everything about her presence. Nancy, I love you, mommas. Until I see you again, hold a spot for me, okay?

My deepest condolences to her family, friends, and to everyone whose lives were touched by this beautiful woman — mine included. May God bless and keep her always.
