

Nancy Ann Rush

August 17, 1935 - October 12, 2025

Nancy has now joined Warner in heaven. She missed him so!

Nancy lived her life with grace, generosity, and an adventurous spirit. Any task Nancy took on she added her unique and creative perspective, as well as her incredible work ethic. She met life's challenges with strength and deep faith. She cherished welcoming others into her life and home and bringing people together, especially through the love of music and dance. She taught us the value of laughter, the importance of joy, and the power of celebrating life.

Nancy always believed that her prayers to Mother Mary led her to the love of her life. Together, Nancy and Warner built a life filled with laughter and adventure. They had an unwavering devotion to each other and their family. For 64 years, their love, faith, and commitment created a legacy to treasure! We are forever grateful!

A life well lived! Rest in peace, Nan! Enjoy your reunion with Dad! We love you! You will be greatly missed!

“ Warner and Nancy were a perfect match. They were warm, easy to get along with and a true model for the Beechwood Community while they lived there. Their suggestions were always on point and helped the Board on many occasions! They are missed.
