“ I will never forget my grandfather. He always knew how to make me smile. From when I was little, to even the last time I spoke to him. I remember being able to visit him more frequently with my dad these past couple of years, and I was able to make memories. It's hard being the youngest granddaughter, but I'll cherish the memories that my dad and the rest of the family remember about him. Until we meet again Papa, I love you very much. -Victoria Rodriguez
