

Richard Zaccagnino

January 23, 1950 - August 2, 2025

Richard Zaccagnino passed away peacefully on 8/2/25 at the age of 75, leaving behind a life marked by warmth, creativity, and a deep appreciation for the world around him. Born in Port Chester, NY, on January 23, 1950, Richard later made his home in Tarrytown, where he spent over 25 happy years surrounded by beloved housemates and dedicated staff who became like family. He embraced life with a joyful and curious spirit—he loved to travel and took great pride in building and collecting models of airplanes, trains, and automobiles. He enjoyed Star Wars, music, drawing, and gardening, and found deep companionship in caring for his beloved cats: Tom, Boomerang, Red, and Kitty. Richard will be fondly remembered for his gentle heart and the quiet, special way he touched the lives of those who knew and loved him. Richard was recently a resident of Waterview Hills Nursing Rehab Center in Purdys, NY where he enjoyed his time, made many friends and received extraordinary care.

He is survived by his sister, Cheryl Dodge; his niece, Kim Wildey-Vidal of Colebrook, CT; his nephew, Chad Wildey of New Milford, CT; and his devoted friend and advocate, Debbie Melillo of Brewster, NY.
