“ My family, Brian, Maria, and Millis my Deepest Condolences. I loved Stephen like a brother. I remember many years we shared our Thanksgiving Dinners with you all. Steven didn't talk to much, he was shy then. Stephen didn't have to talk, cause his big bright beautiful SMILE said it all. Rest in Heaven, Stepen. I will miss you. Love you Darcel.

“ I worked with Stephen from 1996-1999. We talked over the years and I visited him in the hospital many times. I used to joke and call him Mr. Nixon. Stephen had the most electric smile and I loved how he always wrote with a blue Flair pen at work. He was very special to me and I'll always love him. I'm sorry he could not beat this but am grateful his pain is gone.

“ You were my best friend and brother, losing you breaks my heart. I am going to miss you very much. We've been lifelong friends since 1st grade and our friendship never wavered. You were one of the most intelligent people that I have ever known, your philosophy and wisdom kept me on the straight and narrow. I remember us holding court at White Castle in the Bronx until the sun came up discussing the ways of life. Many of the most fun times in my life were with you by my side. I cherish the memories we've made and will hold them close in my heart. I am relieved your suffering is over so now you can rest in peace my dear friend.
