

Theresa Delimater

May 6, 1944 - May 26, 2022

Theresa Delimater (nee Herzig) of Ossining, New York, passed away suddenly on May 26, 2022.

Terry was preceded in death by her husband Edward Delimater, her parents Frank and Cecilia Herzig, and the most recent death of her sister Joyce Miller, which occurred ten days earlier.

She is survived by her brothers Ronald, Kenneth, and Robert Herzig, sisters Patricia Grip and Arlene Lambert.

Terry was a graduate of North Bergen High School and also graduated from the prestigious Katherine Gibbs School, which helped prepare her for a very successful career in business. Terry was employed by Loews Corporation as an executive secretary to the Tisch Family, who are co-owners of the New York Giants.

Terry was unselfishly generous to everyone, especially her nieces and nephews whom she adored and supported all their accomplishments in life. But her most important characteristic was shown in her dedication and support to numerous charities. She was an avid sports enthusiast and a rabid fan of the New York Giants, attending numerous Super Bowls.

The family wishes to express their sincere appreciation and gratitude to two of Terry's neighbors and friends, Catherine Basso and Jerry Lynch, who helped Terry and the extended family during this very difficult time. A private memorial service will be held at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, contributions in Terry's memory may be made to the Ossining Food Pantry (<https://ossiningfoodpantry.org/>) or the Salvation Army

“ Was shocked to hear that Terry had passed. Will miss our times together at Papermill, Bingo and our famous game nights. Rest in Peace my dear friend.

“ Aunt Terry was a kind-hearted soul who would give the shirt off her back to anyone. I will miss our conversations. She could engage you in anything- travel, current events, etc. Not many people in the world take the time to truly listen to other people. However, she did and I always felt her genuine interest when we conversed. You will be missed!
