

Vincent Margotta

July 8, 1927 - May 12, 2019

Vincent Margotta- A lifelong resident of Sleepy Hollow passed away at Phelps Memorial Hospital on Sunday May 12th at the age of 91. Born on July 8th 1927 in North Tarrytown he was the son of the late Anthony J. Margotta and the late Mary Dipolito-Margotta. He attended St. Teresa's Catholic school and graduated with honors from Marymount College. He was an office worker for Anchor Motors Inc. a company based in North Tarrytown. After Anchor motors he worked for many years as a bartender for a family owned business and eventually became owner of the establishment. Those who knew Mr. Margotta well knew him to be a loner, a very literate and intelligent man, a devout catholic and church goer. In addition to his mother and father he was predeceased by his beloved sister Luci Margotta Longo and his nephew Christopher A. Longo. He is survived by one niece, Denise Payton. Two Nephews Patrick Longo Jr. and Anthony Longo all of Greenwich Ct. He was deeply loved by his nieces and nephews and will be sorely missed.
