

Violet Toth Manca

April 7, 1927 - August 12, 2021

Violet Toth Manca, a longtime resident of Tarrytown, N.Y., passed away at age 94 on August 12th, 2021 after a long illness. She was the beloved mother of Susan Manca of New York City, Jill Manca of Arlington, Massachusetts, and Joseph Manca of Houston, Texas. Violet was predeceased by her husband of 62 years Vladimir Joseph ("Joe") Manca (d.2008). She was also the Gold Star mother of Ronald Manca (d.1972). She loved the company of her five grandchildren, and five great grandchildren. She was also very close to her sister, Irene Toth Campbell, of Wappingers Falls, New York. She was predeceased by her brothers Ernest Toth and Coleman Toth. During her years in Tarrytown, she was a homemaker and a nurse; she worked at Phelps Memorial Hospital and in the office of Dr. Ivo Klima. Late in her life, she took up painting and exhibited landscapes at the warner public library. Violet greatly enjoyed the friendships and events at her daily visits over the years to the Tarrytown senior centers.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations in memory of violet to The Neighborhood House Inc., 43 Wildey St. Tarrytown, New York 10591

A memorial service will be held at a future date.
