“ I remember when first cousin Pelly, as we called him came to Tarrytown and stayed with my grandmother. I remember him being a real cool cousin and one I enjoyed talking with. As we matured and he had his businesses on Main/Washington Streets we talked even more. A great cousin who will be truly missed. Love you Cree and praying for the family.

“ I am so grateful that I was introduced to my cousin Pellie at a very young age, by my Mema (Essie Malone), my maternal grandmother. I think in my entire life I might have called him Wade three times. I remember so clearly his Record Shop & the C&W Business. My brother Billy still has a beautiful antique cabinet that he purchased from him. Cousin Pellie, now you are really free. There are no chains holding you and God has placed you among some great SAINTS!!! I love you and you will be missed; but I know you are enjoying Glory. Gone but you will never be forgotten. Cousin Cree thank you for the love, commitment and dedication you showed my cousin. You were faithful and always there for him. Now, take you rest because you truly deserve it. To my cousins, Lois, Judy, Jayne (Osiris) and Wade know that the Scott-McFadden Families are praying for you all. God promised that HE would wipe all of our tears away.

“ Wade Solomon was a hard working, respectable business owner in the Village of Tarrytown who was well known and liked by all. He was the owner of C&W Vacuum Repair on Washington Street. Wade was known for being able to fix things that others couldn't. He was a family man, married to Creola an active member of the New Hope Baptist Church and father to Jane, Lois, Judy and Wade Jr.

Wade always put his family first and was willing to lend a hand to those who needed one. Rest in Peace, your work here is done.
